856 TYPICAL AMERICAN YACHTS

AMERICA'S CUP

CHALLENGERS AND DEFENDERS

1851—1881

A series of the Great International Yacht Races and others, painted, in 1894, by Frederic S. Cozzens, whose fame as a marine artist is world-wide.

A rare edition; framed in black oak, and in fine condition—the last known set in existence, of these famous old-time yachts, acknowledged by all yachtsmen as most faithful reproductions of the original paintings. An unequalled opportunity to adorn the walls of a Yacht Club. The last figure obtained at public sale was $50 each.

A. Cary Smith, the well-known naval architect, says of these pictures:

“As I have seen all the originals, from the America and Maria, down to the latest vessel, and have paid great attention to yachts and yachting for many years, it gives me pleasure to testify to the general accuracy of detail and character, and also to the artistic merit of the composition of the various groups of vessels.”
